About us

Established in 1986 in Pondicherry University on the salubrious East Coast of India, the Department continues to attract students and scholars from all over India for its M.A., and Ph.D., programs since its inception. With its special focus on Comparative Literature, it has so far produced around 100 PhDs and 340 M.Phils. besides a massive exodus of PGs. The faculty of the Department with their diverse research areas and publications on topics of contemporary relevance remain at the forefront of innovative research and erudition. The Department also caters to the language and communication needs of students from other departments, running special courses on language and communication skills and an add-on PG Diploma in Professional Communication in English. The Department runs a Research and Journal Alert Forum thereby providing a platform for students and scholars to present their research findings and creative talents.

A Seven-Day International e-Workshop has been planned by the Department of English from 22nd to 28th June 2020. It will have its focus on “Contemporary

About e-Workshop

The Workshop will feature lectures by reputed resource persons across the country for a period of seven days with 1.5-hour sessions each (1 hour lecture and 30 min interaction.) The morning session will be from 11 to 12.30 and the evening session will be from 3 to 4.30. We will be delivering the lectures on an online platform for all the registered participants. The 30-minute interactive session will be live with the resource person. After the lectures, we will also provide the topical points of the lecture through email with additional resources for further reading.

Registration will be done using Google forms. Feedback forms will be distributed and received online. A final MCQ test will also be conducted based on the lectures delivered. An e-certificate will be issued to the participants.

Attendance is mandatory for all the sessions.
