

CALL FOR PAPERS for Special Issue on Ecocriticism

Comparative Literature and Culture 16.4 (December 2014) <http://docs.lib.purdue.edu/clcweb>
"Ecocriticism," thematic issue CLCWeb: Comparative Literature and Culture 16.4
(December 2014): <http://docs.lib.purdue.edu/clcweb> --guest edited by Murali Sivaramakrishnan
(Pondicherry University) and Simon C. Estok (Sungkyunkwan University). Ecocriticism has evolved into full-fledged critical theory and practice in multi-, inter-, and transcultural scholarship with its own conceptual tools of reference and theoretical frameworks. Papers are invited to address new developments in ecocriticism. These may include topics such as the postcolonial legacies and colonialist ecophobia that have had and continue to have profound global effects, matters of environmental justice, questions about material ecocriticism, vanishing agrarian communities, and the increasing importance of animal studies and human-nature interface in the light of global debates on the fragility of environment etc. Articles in the journal are minimum 6000 and maximum 7000 words: for the style of the journal consult <http://docs.lib.purdue.edu/clcweblibrary/clcwebstyleguide>.
Please submit papers to Murali Sivaramakrishnan (murali.eng@pondiuni.edu.in) and Simon C. Estok (estok@skku.edu) before 31st May 2014. Following peer review authors are notified about the publication of the material submitted. Publications in CLC Web are indexed, among others, in the Thomson Reuters Arts and Humanities Citation Index.
