E-CIRCULAR

One day workshop on industry interaction and consultancy

As you are aware, industry interactions through consultancy projects, EDP and training programs etc. are given strong emphasis in various rankings as one of crucial parameters. In view of the above, University has recently approved a draft policy framework for Industry interaction and Industry Consultancy.

Our University faculty members have expertise in various domains gained through strong commitment to teaching and research. However, the same has not been adequately applied towards solving problems faced by micro, small, medium and large scale industries. State of the art facilities available at the University can contribute in this regard. Such interactions enrich the knowledge and benefit the University and the society at large.

In continuation with the same, one day workshop is planned to create awareness among the faculty members.
