Churchill Archive Journals – Free Trial

Free trial of Churchill Archive Journals are available till 31/07/2013.

Access available at : <http://www.churchillarchive.com>

The Churchill Archive is a unique resource that brings nearly 800,000 documents amassed by Winston S. Churchill throughout his life online for the first time. To complement the core content, the Churchill Archive will offer an expanding range of additional materials, including pedagogical resources and secondary materials, plus editorially-selected links to other resources, video and audio content, and biographical and bibliographic databases.

The whole collection is now commonly known as the Churchill Papers, but historically it has been divided into two distinct groups. The papers dating from before 27 July 1945, when Churchill's first term as Prime Minister ended, are known as the Chartwell Papers (catalogue reference CHAR). The papers dating from after 27 July 1945 (catalogue reference CHUR) are known as the Churchill Papers.

Please circulate this information to all the faculty, research scholars and students to make the best use of this access facility.
