

Mr. S.Balamurugan, Production Assistant Centre for Electronic Media, Pondicherry University was conferred a National Award - Golden Beaver Award under Popular Science Film category for the production of video film, The Night Warriors in the 100th session of India Science Congress, RashtriyaVigyanChalchitraMela and Competition (RVCM)-2013 held at Kolkata-2013 VigyanPrasar from 04th to 07th January 2013. The competition received 83 films produced across India, Out of these, only top 25 Short listed films were screened during the festival at Science City and TheNight Warriors tops the list.The Night Warriors, the film explore habitats of bats, save bats from extinction and the contribution of various species in different ways that benefit man and ecosystem.

The award is presented by Shri AmolPalekar, an eminent film personality from the Indian film Industry andDr. Sameer Brahmachari, Director General, CSIR

The above film festival is a platform for communication Science, technology and environment through this powerful medium.