

UNESCO Madanjeet Singh Institute of South Asian Regional Cooperation (UMISARC) &
Southern Asia Studies Programme
Pondicherry University

Cordially invite you to a talk on

India and Nuclear Disarmament

by

Professor Swaran Singh

Professor and Chairperson

Centre for International Politics, Organization and Disarmament (CIPOD),

School of International Studies,
Jawaharlal Nehru University
New Delhi

About the Speaker: Prof Swaran Singh is currently Professor and Chairman of CIPOD, JNU, New Delhi. He has research and publication experience for 20 years on issues of arms control and disarmament, war and peace, defence, security and nuclear issues, China's foreign and security policies, especially India-China and India-Pakistan Confidence Building Measures.

Prof Singh is a prolific writer and has contributed many research papers in various national and international journals of repute and has authored 3 books; 7 monographs; contributed 45 Chapters in books; 75 research articles in academic journals and 130 in other periodicals; 170 articles in newspapers and websites; and delivered over 200 lectures and conference papers, both within and abroad.

Date & Time: August 19, 2011, at 2.30 p.m. onwards

Venue: UMISARC
Silver Jubilee Campus
Pondicherry University

Prof. N.K. Jha
Director, UMISARC