

PONDICHERRY UNIVERSITY

Centre for Women's Studies

In collaboration with the

Dept of English

Invites entries for

Skit & Short Play Competition

Rules and regulations:

Theme:

Students are expected to either focus on just one topic or a cluster of topics within the scope of themes like sexual violence, dowry harassment, female infanticide, domestic violence, challenging stereotypes, honour killings etc. Any other theme relevant to the topic of the competition is welcome.

Composition of participants:

Each entry must be submitted as a group effort, with no more than 6 members per team. A group can also have any student across disciplines. (Inter-department)

Entry requirements:

The competition is in English. However if the skit is a mime, language has no role.

All participants must be current students of Pondicherry University.

Duration of presentation: Maximum-15 mins

Participants are required to bring their own costumes, props, sound effects, music accompaniment and make-up. Style of presentation should be any one or a combination of: Drama, Mime, Musical/Dance.

Entries must be original work of the participants

Judging criteria:

Entries will be assessed confidentially by an independent panel of judges based on the following judging criteria.(25%-content/relevance of the theme, 25%-creativity/originality, 25%-theatrical quality(sounds/props/movement etc), 25%-audience appeal & Overall quality of performance)

Teams that exceed the time limit may be penalized.

Participants are encouraged to use recycled materials as props.

Decision of the judges will be final and no further appeal will be entertained.

Each participant will be given a certificate of participation.

Submission of entries:

Entries with the title of the Skit/Short play, name of all team members, and contact number of the team leader may be sent to Dr.T.Marx, Department of English, Pondicherry University, Puducherry-605014 on or before 5th March 2013.

For further details, Contact 9443984650/drtmarx@gmail.com