Dear Sir/Madam,

Hindustani Prachar Sabha ("HPS"), founded by Mahatma Gandhi in 1942 is committed to promoting the teaching of Hindustani language ("Sara Hindi") in Schools and Colleges in Mumbai and other parts of Maharashtra. The courses and the examinations conducted by HPS are recognized by Government of India.

With a view to inculcating the habit of learning, conversing and writing in Hindi (especially Sara Hindi) HPS conducts various work shops and competitions on topical themes.

You will appreciate that the menace of corruption has almost destroyed the very fabric of our society. Keeping the importance of the issue in mind, HPS has announced an All India National Level Essay Competition in Hindi for college and university students on the topic "How to tackle corruption". The winners will be awarded handsome prizes as follows:-

PRIZES:

- First Prize - Rs. 50,000/-
- Second Prize - Rs. 30,000/-
- Third Prize - Rs. 20,000/-

- Five Consolation Prizes - Rs. 5,000/- each.

The essays, to be submitted in Hindi should be in the range of 7500 to 10,000 words and must reach the office of HPS by 31st July, 2011.

We would appreciate if you will give wide publicity to the competition in your University and the Colleges affiliated to it. You will agree that by participating in the competition, the students will be joining a mass campaign for a national cause of vital importance and they will get an opportunity to express their opinion on an issue which has assumed cancerous dimensions.

We enclose herewith two coloured posters with a request that the same be displayed at appropriate places.

Yours faithfully,
Hindustani Prachar Sabha
