

Puduvai Vaani 107.8MHz CRS Bagged National Award

Honourable Central Minister for Information and Broadcasting, Mr. Manish Tiwari, conferred awards, at the final day of the 3rd National Community Radio Sammelan on 11 February 2013, in New Delhi.

In the thematic category, which recognizes stations for their efforts in making programmes on themes relevant to their community, Pondicherry University's Community Radio Station Puduvai Vaani bagged the first prize for its programme Ungalai Thedi. Programme Executive Dr. Salema Rabiyyath participated in the meet and received the award.

Pondicherry University Vice-Chancellor Prof. Chandra Krishnamurthy and Prof. M. Ramadass, Head CRS & Director of Studies, Educational innovations & Rural Reconstruction felicitated the Puduvai Vaani crew for receiving the National Award.

