PONDICHERRY UNIVERSITY
CENTRE FOR WOMEN'S STUDIES
WINTER SEMESTER 2007-2008
SOFT CORE

CFWS011: GENDER MASS MEDIA AND POPULAR CULTURE

COURSE CREDITS: 3

COURSE COORDINATOR: Dr Usha VT

This course is open to students from all departments.

Objectives: This course is designed as an introductory one: it hopes to introduce the students to notions of gender and ideology. Relevant ideas and concepts from the Anglo American Feminists will be discussed in class and examined, for the most, from the modern Indian point of view.

The course also expects to familiarize the students with the tools of feminist pedagogy and will discuss its implications in the popular electronic media in India. Both print and television media will be discussed.

Course Content:

While one section of the course will be theoretical the other will be practical. The theory classes will deal with notions of gender, feminist theory, special terminology etc, while the second part will deal with the practical application of these theories on the print media and the Indian popular visual media, using films, videos, advertisement clips, popular serials etc.

CFWS011: GENDER MASS MEDIA AND POPULAR CULTURE

COURSE CREDITS: 3

COURSE COORDINATOR: Dr Usha VT

Syllabus

The course will consist of the following 5 units:

Unit1 What is gender? Definitions of Gender, the difference between sex and gender, etc.

Unit 2 Definitions of massmedia, descriptive analysis of various modes of massmedia such as newspaper, magazines, radio, television, internet, etc.

Unit 3 The influence of media in society—its manifestation in society

Unit 4 What is Popular culture? How are women represented in various forms of media

Unit 5 Women as producers and women as consumers of media.

Methodology

Apart from introductory lectures, students will be encouraged to participate in discussions and make seminar presentations. They will view films and video clippings with a view to develop a critical and gender sensitive perspective towards the texts viewed.
