Sub: Inviting papers for Presentation in the 46th All India Police Science Congress to be held on 26th-27th October, 2017-reg.

Sir/Madam,

Please refer to BPR&D's letter of even number dated 18.07.2017 on the above mentioned subject. BPR&D organizes the All India Police Science Congress annually which provides a useful and informal forum for in-depth discussions on various aspects of Police functioning and encourages creative thinking amongst the police officers, social scientists, forensic scientists and experts on police subjects. It also provides them an opportunity to present papers on various subjects relating to the Police Administration/ Criminology/ Police Science, Forensic Sciences, Cyber Crime etc.

2. The 46th All India Police Science Congress (AIPSC) will be hosted by this Bureau on 26th-27th October, 2017 in Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi.

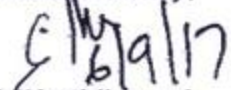

3. The themes for the 46th AIPSC are:

1. Social Media and Law Enforcement.
2. Management of Investigative Case Load.
3. Information Security.
4. Crypto Currency and its Challenges.
5. Preventive Enforcement with respect to Narcotics Cultivation.

4. It is requested that Police as well as non- police personnel of all ranks and designations may be encouraged to contribute papers to this Congress. It may be ensured that the papers are originally conceptualized. The papers received shall be scrutinized by a Screening Committee to shortlist them according to their content, relevance and topical value. The authors of these selected papers may be invited to present the same at the Congress. These papers may also be published in the compendium and circulated to all the stakeholders.

5. The last date for submission of papers has been extended up to 15.09.2017 and the papers (not more than 3000 words) may be sent at ddres@bprd.nic.in. Details regarding the upcoming AIPSC can also be seen at our website <http://www.bprd.nic.in>.

Yours faithfully,

(Dr. S. Karthikeyan)
Assistant Director (Research)
