MedicinesComplete is an online platform which offers access to world leading drug and healthcare resources. This unique collection of clinically-proven, unbiased pharmaceutical information provides practical guidance and insight to pharmaceutical and clinical practitioners, researchers, and regulatory professionals.

MedicinesComplete supports both searching within a title and an integrated search across all titles, bringing together a wealth of evidence based, unbiased and regularly updated information:

- More than 30,000 drug, poison, interaction and herbal monographs
- Information to support prescribing, dispensing and administering drugs and medicines
- Up-to-date guidance on disease treatments, disease management and therapeutics
- Information on analysing, formulating and preparing drugs, medicines, and many other pharmaceutical products
- The combined knowledge of hundreds of leading experts, scientists and researchers
- Over 650,000 pages of clinically-proven and quickly searchable drug information
- International coverage from over 50 countries

All the Faculty, Research Scholars and Students are requested to make the best use of this access facility.
