Sir,

Sub: Kerala Legislative Assembly-Centre for Parliamentary Studies and Training-
National Students' Parliament, Kerala-2019-Participation of Students-reg.

The Kerala Legislative Assembly is organizing a National Students' Parliament, as part of the 'Festival on Democracy' – a series of National-level Conferences which aim to reiterate and inculcate the values and principles of democracy among the various sections of society of the country and to uphold the progressive ethos of our Constitution.

The National Students' Parliament, Kerala-2019 is scheduled to be held from 23rd to 25th February 2019 with the aim of inculcating in the youth, a love for democratic values and the democratic way of life, and to instill a craving for democracy as a system, thought and vision. The programme is expected to be inaugurated by the Hon'ble Vice President of India, and will have in attendance a host of VVIPs including the Chief Minister of Kerala, Ministers, MP, MLAs and other distinguished guests from all over the country. Around 2000 socially and politically active students in the age group of 18 to 30 years from various universities in India will participate in the Conference, the focal points of which will cover faith and affinity towards politics and parliamentary democracy, plurality of thought, the essence and spirit of the Constitution, the need for ethics in public life, the vision of sustainable development and the emergence of an enlightened new world, through information gateways. The discussion will center around democracy, politics and the Constitution of India, and the National Students' Parliament aims to direct the power and possibilities of democracy and politics towards world peace and sustainable development.

Youth icons and leaders from various walks of life will guide the discussions in the plenary and regional sessions and interact with the youth leading to a Declaration which will be forwarded to State and National Level Legislative and Government bodies for appropriate action.

In this connection, I am to request you to ensure maximum participation of the students from your institution in the National Students' Parliament, Kerala-2019. Details of the programme and the process of registration are available on the website www.festivalondemocracy.in
