conducts educational contests and workshops in eight subjects at over 75 regional chapters and at the National Finals held in a prominent university. NSF children have captured international attention by winning the Scripps National Spelling Bee in USA for four consecutive years. NSF raises scholarship funds through its educational contests, walk-a-thons and other fund-raising activities by its 1000-strong volunteer team. NSF is in the process of bringing its expertise in conducting workshops and contests to the benefit of school children in India. NSF has already conducted a few pilot contests in Hyderabad and would be expanding its activities to other Indian cities. NSF believes in building strong communities by promoting excellence in education with volunteer participation. To volunteer in NSF activities please contact your nearest chapter coordinator. For more information please visit the NSF website or send email to nsfindiascholarships@gmail.com.
