"... Scholars and Prophets is a work of immense erudition guided by a strong sense of purpose (...) The study is a targeted attempt to uncover the origins of Dumont's analysis of the caste system in his Homo hierarchicus."

Rosane Rocher,
University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia,
Journal of the American Oriental Society

"This book, which deals with the representations of India in France, serves as a landmark model of historical sociology of human and social sciences"

Gisèle Sapiro,
Centre national de la recherche scientifique, Paris,
Transeco Review

This Series brings together a body of work from France on India and South Asia. Books which appear in this series will cover the social sciences and literature, made available to the English speaking world often for the first time.
