Free Distribution of Competitive Books to Merit Holders

Dear Sir/Madam,

Kindly accept the greetings from Scientific Publishers!

Scientific Publishers established in 1976, since inception, are leading publishers and distributors of books in the field of science and technology. We publish updated and latest information for the benefit of teaching faculty and college students in the form of Reference and Text books on Agriculture.

In view to extend benefit to the deserving and outstanding students, who have secured 1st and 2nd rank in the merit of UG and PG examinations, we will offer free copies of competitions books published by us for the preparation of their competitive examinations like ICAR-ARS/NET, JRF, SRF, IAS, IFS, PCS, SLETS, CSIR/UGC-NET, UPSC-CS, FCI & Ph.D.

Further, we request you to provide the details of students who have secured 1st and 2nd rank in the UG and PG examinations from 2013 onwards to enable us to approach them and dispatch the required competition books directly on their addresses.

We would also request you to place this information under your signature on the NOTICE BOARD of your department/college so that more students can be benefited out of this drive. A draft of notice for display on the students notice board alongwith details of published competition books is enclosed herewith for your convenience. We would be delighted and obliged by your kind action.

In addition, we are seeking experienced authors for publication of College Text Books and Competitive Exam Prep Books covering new developments in Agriculture Science, Life Science and Engineering. We can be contacted on the undersigned email address. Terms and conditions can be decided on mutual benefits.
