

Southern Asia Studies Programme
UNESCO Madanjeet Singh Institute of South Asian Regional Cooperation (UMISARC)
Pondicherry University

Cordially invites you to a talk sponsored by Public Diplomacy Division of the Ministry of External Affairs, Government of India under its Distinguished Lecture Series

on

New Directions in Public Diplomacy

on February 03, 2012 (Friday) at 10:30 am to 12:30 pm

By

Ambassador Navdeep Singh Suri, IFS
Joint Secretary, Public Diplomacy Division
Ministry of External Affairs
Government of India, New Delhi

About the Speaker: Ambassador Navdeep Singh Suri is the Joint Secretary & Head of the Public Diplomacy Division and an Indian Foreign Service officer since 1983. Ambassador Suri has served in a host of different capacities in India's diplomatic missions in Egypt, Syria, the United States, Tanzania, the UK and South Africa. He has worked in the economic division of the Ministry of External Affairs, headed its West Africa division. He speaks Arabic and French and his translation of Punjabi classic 'The Watchmaker' was published by Penguin in 2008.

Venue: UMISARC Auditorium
Silver Jubilee Campus
Pondicherry University

Prof. N.K. Jha
Director, UMISARC &
Dean, School of Social Sciences & International Studies