Focus of the talk:

- (1) How can we perceive of China's roles and interests both economically and strategically in the north Indian Ocean?
- (2) What are the common interests (commercial) and security threats that could facilitate regional cooperation and the evolution of current regional mechanism?
- (3) For the undergoing India economic reforms under the Modi Government, how could China be engaged and contribute to this process? What will be the policy implications for South India especially from the perspective of industry-chain integration?
- (4) What is the local perspective on China-India sub-regional and regional economic cooperation? What will bring to Pondicherry after the Delhi-Chennai high-speed train is constructed. ?
