Company Profile & Job Description as received from the company:

We as a company focus on core verticals of the Mobile VAS – IVR, WAP, SMS, Mobile Applications. The platforms and applications that we use are home-grown applications designed and developed by our developers who were like you when they joined our organization. Now they are our core tech team members. So we give opportunity to the young talent to Idealize, Incubate and Implement them internationally.

That's the way young talents join us and we nurture them to grow with us. We have had quite a few people who left the company after gaining experience, only to be back within 3 months because they didn't want to work anywhere else but here.

Mobile industry is the best place to be currently as it is the future of business and is growing at a phenomenal rate. We as a company were and will continue to be unaffected by any forms of recession because of our unique business model.

I am sure it would be a very good work experience for everyone.
